

COLLECTOR: Stephen Wurm						TAPE NO: 2891 2892	AUDITION SHEET NO.
LOCALITY & DATE: Canberra, ACT April, 1963 Brisbane, Qld November, 1964						OPTION: A3a ; B1	ABBREVIATIONS:
FIELD EQUIPMENT:						PERFORMER(S): Charlie Phillips Willie McKenzie (Gaiarbau)	AUDITIONED BY: Cok
HALF/FOUR TRACK:			SPEED: 9.5 cm/s		LANGUAGE OF PERFORMER(S): Garlarli, Dunggidjau, Waka Waka		DATE: 27.1.88
COLLECTOR'S TAPE NO: 31						RECORDING SESSION (REC) NO:
TIME	TAPE NO & TRACK	VOICE	INSTR	ITEM NO & TITLE	MUSIC (IDENT)	ITEM DURATION
A00:00	31				Woodpecker story - Dunggidjau SPEECH SW: That's all right. () Let us say that the next story that we shall record will be the story of the woodpecker. (story given) ON B WOODPECKER STOR
08:24					END OF FIELD TAPE 31		ON LA 1782
10:35	34				SW: Recordings in Garlarli taken at Canberra in April, 1963. The speaker is Phillips from Winari(?). (word elicitation)
10:48					END OF FIELD TAPE 34 A AND OF LA 2992 A
59:18
B: 00:00	34B				SW: Continuation of recording in Garlarli taken in Canberra in April, 1963. Speaker, Charlie Phillips. (word list?)
00:11					SW: Go away from that water. Where is your camp? Is it far from here or is it close? It is a long way. My camp is on the bank of a big river. Who is that man who is chopping (other sentences about wood) He hit me and cut my head.
16:10				(sentence elicitation)
17:55					END OF FIELD TAPE 34 B
20:01	35A				SW: Recordings in Dunggidjau, Willie McKenzie, Gaiarbau, taken in Brisbane, in November 1964 (Aboriginal speech - no English)
20:13					SW: Now this story was about marriage and the next story is about the meat ants. (story in Dunggidjau)
22:03					SW: Now the next one is the war cry of the Dunggidjau people.
22:10
29:49
29:55		m		1. War cry of the Dunggidjau	SW: Now the next one is the way in which the lead into a corroboree is made and the announcing of the cast as people come in.		46"
30:51		m	sts	2.	SW: Now the next story is about (), that's the dingo. (story in Dunggidjau)		34"
31:34					SW: The next story is about kangaroo hunting. (story in Dunggidjau)
35:39					SW: Now if the kangaroo is in the water.. (Aboriginal story continues)
35:44
37:13

⊗ NB This appears to be duplicated on LA 1777B. This tape (LA 2892) contains the more complete version.

